STUDIO PILATES

with Rachael Gray, Ray Salahuddin, & Louis Acquisto

This 6 week workshop series, 1 hour per week, will provide you with a progressive foundational system to recruit more muscles, accelerate weight loss, increase your body awareness, and improve your posture to aid in injury prevention. Each week builds on the last; you'll gain confidence with your individual skill set. Watch how Pilates principles start to flow into your every day habits. Functional, flexible, and strong core muscles are key to reaching a wide variety of fitness and sport performance goals. Commit to this comprehensive Pilates series to enhance your workouts as you strengthen your body for your unique needs. We are excited to offer this training in a personal small group learning environment.
